Amb. Dr. Srinivas Eluri: A Visionary Leader and Distinguished Diplomat

Amb. Dr. Srinivas Eluri, Secretary General of the International Commission of Culture and Diplomatic Relations (ICCDR), recently took the oath as Major General, India, of the International Police Commission (IPC) at a ceremony held in Manila, Philippines, on July 25th. This prestigious appointment is a testament to his exemplary career and unwavering commitment to international peace and security.

The IPC is an intergovernmental organization established under international law through treaties among seven nations: the United States, the Philippines, Australia, Thailand, Vietnam, New Zealand, and South Korea. As an agency of the International Court of Justice (ICJ) and the International Criminal Court (ICC), the IPC operates as a paramilitary organization with global jurisdiction. It also holds membership in the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) and is ratified by the UN Security Council. The ceremony underscoring Amb. Dr. Eluri's new role was attended by Robert Bizon, the Supreme Commander General of the IPC, along with other high-ranking officials from the Diplomatic Affairs Staff, reflecting the significant impact of this appointment.

Professional Accomplishments and Academic Credentials

Dr. Eluri holds an LLM in International Law and a PhD, marking his profound expertise in the legal and diplomatic arenas. He has served as an Ambassador at Large for the International Commission to Diplomatic Relations, Human Rights, and Peace under the UN UGO, with diplomatic immunities and privileges. As the Director of the Royal Academy of Global Peace in the USA and the Indian Director George Washington University of Peace (USA) his influence extends globally. He is also affiliated with the George Washington University of Peace, USA, and serves as the CEO of the Swastha Environment and Human Rights Foundation, a UN Global Compact signatory.

Dr. Eluri's participation in international conferences and awards events has taken him across South East Asia, Europe, and the Middle East, visiting countries such as Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand, Germany, the Netherlands, Belgium, France, and the UAE on official assignments. His exceptional contributions have earned him numerous accolades, including the prestigious President's Medal and the Man of Humanity Award in the Philippines in 1918, along with ten other international awards and three honorary doctorate degrees from the Academy of Universal Global Peace, USA, International Open University, and Asian University International, UK.

Commitment to Sustainable Development and Environmental Conservation

Dr. Eluri's commitment to sustainable development goals (SDGs) and environmental conservation has garnered international acclaim. Through his leadership at the ICCDR, he has spearheaded initiatives promoting cross-cultural understanding and collaboration, fostering peaceful coexistence among nations.

His dedication to fostering dialogue and cooperation has significantly contributed to building bridges between countries, creating an enabling environment for the advancement of the SDGs.

Moreover, Dr. Eluri's relentless efforts in safeguarding the environment have not gone unnoticed. His advocacy for sustainable practices, renewable energy, and eco-friendly policies has inspired communities worldwide to take action against climate change. By emphasizing the importance of collective responsibility, Dr. Eluri has mobilized global support for environmental conservation and played a pivotal role in galvanizing international efforts to combat climate change.

Diplomatic Excellence and Advocacy for Human Rights

As a diplomat, Dr. Srinivas Rao Eluri has demonstrated remarkable skills in navigating complex international relations. He has fostered alliances and partnerships, bringing nations together to address common challenges and find mutually beneficial solutions. His ability to build consensus and promote dialogue has been instrumental in resolving conflicts and promoting stability in various regions.

Notably, Dr. Eluri's advocacy for human rights has been at the forefront of his diplomatic endeavors. He firmly believes that sustainable development cannot be achieved without ensuring the protection of human rights for all. Through his advocacy, he has shed light on human rights violations, championed the rights of marginalized communities, and called for inclusive policies that leave no one behind.

Participation in United Nations Conferences

Dr. Eluri's previous participation in United Nations conferences underscores his commitment to global issues. He is also Permanent Representative to Tripla Difesa Olnus an organisation Consultative Status in UN Economic and Social Council, and participated in United Nations SDG weekend Summit September UN Hq Newyork in 2023 and UN conference on commission on Status of Women in March 2024 .

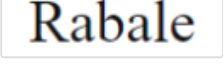

As global leader presented a critical platform for world leaders, experts, and advocates to address the pressing challenges posed by climate change. Dr. Eluri's participation in this summit signifies his dedication to finding innovative solutions to combat climate change and promote sustainable practices on a global scale.

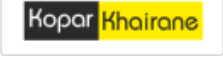

Similarly, the High-level plenary meeting on September 26th, 2023, which commemorates the International Day for the Total Elimination of Nuclear Weapons, offered an opportunity to address the urgency of disarmament and collective security. Dr. Eluri's presence at this event reflects his commitment to advancing international peace and security and his dedication to nuclear disarmament as a means to achieve global stability.

Conclusion

Amb. Dr. Srinivas Eluri's career is a blend of academic brilliance, professional excellence, and dedicated social service. His recent appointment as Major General, India, of the IPC is a recognition of his leadership and commitment to global peace and security. Through his various roles and contributions, Dr. Eluri continues to inspire and lead, making a significant impact on the global stage. His unwavering dedication to sustainable development, environmental conservation, human rights, and international diplomacy sets him apart as a visionary leader, committed to fostering a better and more peaceful world.
